FIRST READING OF SENATE BILLS

Senate Bill No. 1—By the President:

A Bill entitled: "An Act to add new Sections 160A-160KK to Article 23 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title 'Corporations', sub-title 'Building or Homestead Associations', to follow immediately after Section 160 thereof, providing generally for the organization, incorporation, operation, conduct, regulation of and supervision over the savings and loan business, which is known generally as the building, savings and loan or homestead business; providing further for the investments, withdrawal of accounts, taxation, membership, promotional activities, management and functions of such businesses, including class and type of securities, and allocation of profits, reserves and dividends; providing for the branching, consolidation, merger, dissolution and revival of such businesses; making provision for conservators and receivers for such businesses; exempting accounts of such businesses from 'Blue Sky Law'; creating a Board of Building, Savings and Loan Association Advisors, and making provision for the members of such Board and for their qualifications, tenure, powers and duties; vesting certain supervisory and regulatory powers in the State Department of Assessments and Taxation and its Director; providing methods for compliance with stock class requirements; providing penalties for failure or refusal to comply with certain provisions of this Act; and relating generally to the organizations and businesses known generally as building, savings and loan or homestead businesses in this State."

Which was read first time and referred to the Committee on Rules.
