

County shall levy annually, at the time taxes are levied for general county purposes, a tax upon all the property assessed for county tax purposes, within the said County, in an amount sufficient to meet the principal and interest of said bonds so long as any of them shall be outstanding; provided, however, that if the interest matures on any one or more of said issues before the annual levy, or before a sufficient amount of taxes levied for the purposes of paying said interest is collected, the said County Commissioners may pay said interest out of the proceeds of the sale of said issue or issues. The County Commissioners shall offer said bonds for sale to the highest bidder by sealed bids delivered at a place and time mentioned and described in one or more advertisements inserted in at least two newspapers published in said County, and in papers in nearby cities as directed by the County Commissioners. The said Commissioners may adopt such rules and regulations relating to said bonds and offering as they may deem advisable. The proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds up to and including the sum of $600,000.00 shall be paid to or for the use of Anne Arundel General Hospital in the City of Annapolis for the purposes in this Act specified."

Which amendment was read and concurred in.

Amendment No. 3—In line 1 of Section 2 on Page 2 of the third reading file bill, strike out the numeral "2" and insert in lieu thereof the numeral "4".

Which amendment was read and concurred in.

Mr. Boone, duly seconded, moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

Said motion prevailed and the Senate amendments were concurred in.

The bill, as amended, was passed by yeas and nays as follows:
