

representing such debt, and clarifying certain language used in said Section; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 2 of Chapter 210 of the Laws of Maryland of 1961, which Act authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to borrow $3,000,000.00 and to use the same to establish, construct and equip a rehabilitation center for alcoholics and indigent and a detention building for women, authorizing said municipality or the Commissioners of Finance thereof to determine the rate or rates of interest to be paid in connection with such borrowed money and the form or forms of certificates of indebtedness to be issued representing such debt, and clarifying certain language used in said Section; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 2 of Chapter 211 of the Laws of Maryland of 1961, which Act authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to borrow $1,500,000.00 and to use the same to enlarge, extend and improve the Municipal Conduit System of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, authorizing said municipality or the Commissioner of Finance thereof to determine the rate or rates of interest to be paid in connection with such borrowed money and the form or forms of certificates of indebtedness to be issued representing such debt, and clarifying certain language used in said Section; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 2 of Chapter 212 of the Laws of Maryland of 1961, which Act authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to borrow $5,000,000.00 and to use the same to develop, establish, construct, erect, alter, expand, enlarge, improve and equip structures and facilities for storing, parking and servicing self-propelled vehicles, authorizing said municipality or the Commissioners of Finance thereof to determine the rate or rates of interest to be paid in connection with such borrowed money and the form or forms of certificates of indebtedness to be issued representing such debt, and clarifying certain language used in said Section; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 2 of Chapter 213 of the Laws of Maryland of 1961, which Act authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to borrow $25,000,000.00 and to use the same to construct and equip new school buildings, athletic and other auxiliary facilities, and to add to, improve, modernize and reconstruct existing school buildings or facilities, authorizing said municipality or the Commissioners of Finance thereof to determine the rate or rates of interest to be paid in connection with such borrowed money and the form or forms of certificates of indebtedness to be issued representing such debt, and clarifying certain language used in said Section; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 2 of Chapter 214 of the Laws of Maryland of 1961, which Act authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to borrow $12,000,000.00 and to use the same to enlarge, extend and improve the sanitary sewerage and storm water drainage systems of Baltimore City, authorizing said municipality or the Commissioners of Finance thereof to determine the rate or rates of interest to be paid in connection with such borrowed money and the form or forms of certificates of indebtedness to be issued representing such debt, and clarifying certain language used in said Section; to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 2 of Chapter 215 of the Laws of Maryland of 1961, which Act authorized the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to borrow $1,350,000.00 and to use $300,000.00 thereof to establish and equip new playgrounds, recreational centers or recreational buildings and to develop, improve and equip park, school and other property for recreational purposes, and to use the balance of said loan funds to acquire, construct, reconstruct, extend, enlarge, renovate and modernize public park or recreational buildings, structures, facilities or utilities, including the