

Amendment No. 3—In line 1 of Section 74 on page 1 of the third reading file bill, strike out the following: “74 (b)” and insert in lieu thereof the following: “74 (a) Any holder of a license under the provisions of this article including a receiver or trustee for the benefit of creditors, may be permitted to transfer his place of business to some other location and/or sell or assign said license and his stock in trade to another person, provided that application for such transfer and/or sale shall be made, and that a bulk sales permit is obtained where the stock of alcoholic beverages is to be sold, and the new location and/or assignee shall be approved as in the case of an original application for such license. Such transfer and/or assignment when made shall be endorsed upon the license by the official issuing the same, upon the payment of a fee of one dollar ($1.00) in addition to the costs of publication and notice, which shall be paid at the time of the filing of the application for the transfer and/or sale. This section shall permit the transfer of location and the assignment of license in the same application. (b),”

Which amendment was read and concurred in.

Mr. Garbelman, duly seconded, moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments.

Said motion prevailed and the Senate amendments were concurred in.

The bill, as amended, was passed by yeas and nays as follows:
