

good faith deposit in a fixed or determinable amount as security for compliance by the bidder with his bid. Said notice shall refer to this Act as authority for the bonds and shall state the date of issue of the bonds offered, the total aggregate par amount thereof, the schedule of maturities thereof, the interest payable thereon, or the method of determining the same, the purpose to which the proceeds thereof will be devoted, and the general form thereof, including a statement whether said bonds will be redeemable, will be in coupon or registered form, and whether the same will be registerable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. Each such notice of sale shall also contain a brief summary of the current financial condition of the County or shall indicate where such a statement may be obtained and, finally, shall reserve unto the County the right to reject any or all bids received. In lieu of publishing said entire notice of sale, the County may, if it shall so elect in said resolution, publish a brief summary of said notice which need not contain all the information required for said notice of sale but which shall state where interested parties may obtain a complete copy thereof.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the money so borrowed for the public school or schools described in said resolution above required, in evidence of which any such bonds shall be issued, shall be paid by the County to the Board of Education of Prince George's County and, by said Board, shall be used exclusively and solely for such public school or schools. In the event the amounts so borrowed shall prove inadequate for the financing of any such public schools, at any time, the County may issue additional bonds within the limitations hereof for the purpose of evidencing the borrowing of additional funds for any such public school, provided the resolution for authorizing the additional bonds shall so recite, but if the funds derived from the sale of any issue of said bonds shall exceed the amount needed to finance the public school or schools described in said resolution, the excess funds so borrowed and not expended by the Board of Education shall be returned to the County by said Board and applied by said County in payment of the next principal maturity of the bonds so issued or to the redemption of any part of said bonds, if the same shall have been made redeemable, unless said County shall adopt a resolution allocating said excess funds to some other part of the school construction program of said Board of Education.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the bonds hereby authorized shall constitute, and they shall so recite, an irrevocable pledge of the full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power of the County to the payment of the maturing principal and interest of such bonds as and when the same respectively mature. In each and every fiscal year that any of said bonds are outstanding, the County shall levy or cause to be levied ad valorem taxes upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the county in rate and amount sufficient to provide for the payment, when due, of the interest and principal of all said bonds maturing in each such fiscal year and in the event the proceeds from the taxes so levied in any such fiscal year shall prove inadequate for the above purposes, additional taxes shall be levied in the succeeding fiscal year to make up any such deficiency. The County may apply to the payment of principal and interest of any bonds issued hereunder any funds received by it from the State of Maryland, the United States of America, any agency or instrumen-
