

select the third. Within three weeks following completion of selection of the Board of Arbitration, such Board shall hear the appeal, giving the appellant at least five (5) days' written notice of the date, hour and place thereof. The decision rendered by the Board of Arbitration shall be binding on all parties concerned. For his services in hearing the appeal, each member of the Board of Arbitration shall be paid the sum of twenty ($20.00) dollars. If the Board of Arbitration affirms the action of the Board of Electrical Examiners and Supervisors, the $60.00 deposited by the appellant shall be used to pay the compensation of the members of the Board of Arbitration. If, however, the Board of Arbitration reverses the action of the Board of Electrical Examiners and Supervisors and either permits the appellant to take the written examination or orders the Board of Electrical Examiners and Supervisors to issue the appellant the license for which he was examined, then the $60.00 deposit shall be refunded to the appellant, and the Board of Electrical Examiners and Supervisors shall pay the compensation of the Board of Arbitration.

Persons who have failed written examinations for either class of license, and who have not appealed to the Board of Arbitration, shall not be entitled to re-examination until the following periods have elapsed from the date of the preceding examination:

- (a) After first examination, not less than three months*
- (b) After second examination, not less than six months*
- (c) After third examination, not less than twelve months*

8-17.

The license year for both Master and Restricted Electrician Licenses shall run from May 1st through April 30. Any person, firm or corporation granted either class of license under the provisions of this chapter shall, unless said license or a renewal thereof has been suspended or revoked, be granted a renewal as a matter of course and without examination provided the application for renewal is made by the holder of the license prior to midnight of April 30th of each year. The annual renewal fee for Master Electrician license shall be $25.00, and for Restricted Electrician licenses shall be $10.00. Any license which has not been renewed by midnight of April 30th may, in the discretion of the Board, be renewed prior to midnight of May 31st upon the payment by the licensee of the renewal fee plus a delinquency penalty of $10.00. Any licensee who has not renewed his license prior to midnight of May 31st shall be required to submit to written examination as a prerequisite to securing a license thereafter.

Either class of license may be issued to a firm or corporation provided that the firm or corporation regularly employs an individual who has demonstrated his qualifications for the class of license desired. In such case the license shall show on its face both the name of the firm or corporation and the name of the individual who has qualified for the class of license desired.
