PETITION

Annapolis, Md., May 28, 1962.

Maryland Legislature
Chairman, Ways and Means Committee
Honorable Gordon Boone

Your petitioner wishes to call to your attention that after a very fine hearing before your committee in the regular session of the legislature, the Public Authority Bill to develop Assateague Island was tabled.

Tabling of the bill leaves the problem unsolved.

I respectfully request a hearing before your committee in order that you, the chairman and one of the most knowledgeable and influential men in this legislature, can bring to the governor's attention that this should be an administration bill.

Respectfully,

W. E. GREEN
