

He has become a member, by adoption, of the Eastern Shore Delegation in pursuance of his study of the mores and cultures of the Eastern Shore.

Not only has he served in this House with great distinction, but what is more important, it can truly be said he has filled his seat well; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates of Maryland, That we congratulate the Honorable Carl W. Bacharach upon his nomination for a judgeship on the People's Court of Baltimore and we wish him well in the general election; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution is sent to the Honorable Carl W. Bacharach.

Which was read and adopted by roll call, as follows:

House Resolution No. 15—By the Judiciary Committee and Mr. Boone:

House Resolution commending Delegate Ridgely P. Melvin, Jr. of Anne Arundel County.

WHEREAS, Delegate Ridgely P. Melvin, Jr. has served four years as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of this House of Delegates; and

WHEREAS, he has exhibited broad knowledge and grasp of every facet of the law; and

WHEREAS, at the hearings before said Committee he has given all persons full opportunity to present their views on legislation before said Committee in a patient and courteous manner; and

WHEREAS, in the deliberations of the said Committee he has been quietly forceful and fair; and

WHEREAS, on the floor of the House he has explained bills and Committee amendments thereto in a way which was clear and complete; and

WHEREAS, at all times it was plain that he refused to sacrifice principle for expediency, and always displayed the highest degree
