145.

The Board of Medical Examiners of this State may, by a vote of five members, revoke any license which has been issued, and may cause the name of any physician so licensed to be removed from the register of the licentiates of the city or county where it may be recorded for any of the following causes, to wit: The use of fraud or deception in obtaining the license provided in this sub-title, habitual drunkenness, insanity as determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 59, addiction to narcotics, criminal abortion, conviction of crime involving moral turpitude or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct; provided that any revocation proceedings before the Board of Medical Examiners selected by the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty heretofore adjudicated shall not be revived by reason of the provisions hereof. Before proceeding to revoke any such license, the person against whom complaint is made shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and charges made against him, and shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board, in person or by attorney, and at such hearing testimony may be offered for and against the person so charged. The action of the Board shall be reduced to writing, stating also the reasons for said action, and a copy thereof shall be delivered or mailed to the person against whom complaint is made; [within sixty days after said notice of revocation of license shall have been delivered or mailed to any person] said party shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court of the city or county wherein he may reside or where the license is recorded, the judge or judges of which said court shall fully hear and determine all matters connected with the action of said Board from which appeal is taken. Both the party and the Board shall have a further right of appeal from the decision of the circuit court to the court of Appeals of Maryland, subject generally to the time and manner provided for the taking of such appeals to the Court of Appeals. [Should no such appeal be taken, or should said appeal result in the affirmation of the action of said Board, the clerk of the circuit court or courts where said license so revoked shall have been recorded shall, upon due notice from the secretary-treasurer of said Board, strike off the name of said party from the list of licensed practitioners recorded upon said register.] At any time within two years from the revocation of any license, the Board revoking the same may, by a vote of five members, issue without examination a new license to the person whose license was so revoked; but after the expiration of two years such person can obtain a new license only by compliance with the same requirements which are imposed on other applicants for licenses under this sub-title.
