

353.

Any person whose license shall have been suspended or revoked under the provisions of Section 352 of this article, may appeal from the decision or the order of the said Board to the circuit court of the county in which said person resides, or to the Baltimore City Court if said person resides in Baltimore City, and the court shall determine whether the said Board has exceeded the powers granted by this article and whether said Board has misconstrued the law and facts applicable in the matter decided. [Such appeal shall be taken within twenty (20) days from the date of the decision or order complained of by filing a notice of appeal in the office of the clerk of the court to which said appeal is taken, whereupon the clerk shall forward a copy thereof to the said Board, directing the said Board to produce the records and testimony or copies thereof, certified by it relating to the order or decision appealed.] The proceedings in every such appeal shall be informal and summary before the court, sitting without a jury, but full opportunity to be heard shall be had before the order of the court is entered. If the court shall determine that the said Board has acted within its powers and has correctly construed the law and the facts, the decision of the said Board shall be affirmed. Otherwise, it shall be reversed or modified and such order entered as the court may deem proper. [The noting of such appeal shall operate as a] The Board may stay [of] the decision or order [of the said Board.] pending the determination of such appeal.

480. (g) The Board of Osteopathic Examiners of this State, may by a vote of three members, revoke any license which it has issued, and may cause the name of any physician licensed by said Board to be removed from the register of licentiates of the city or county where it may be recorded for any of the following causes; to-wit: The use of fraud or deception in passing the examination provided in this sub-title, habitual drunkenness, criminal abortion, conviction of crime involving moral turpitude or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct. Before proceeding to revoke any such license, the person against whom complaint is made shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and charges made against him, and shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Board, in person or by attorney, and at such hearing testimony may be offered for and against the accused. The action of the Board shall be reduced to writing, stating also the reasons for said action, and a copy thereof shall be delivered or mailed to the person against whom complaint is made; [within sixty days after said notice of revocation of license shall have been delivered or mailed to any person] said party shall have the right of appeal to the circuit court of the city or county wherein he may reside the judge or judges of which said court shall fully hear and determine all matters connected with the action of said Board from which appeal is taken, and the decision of said court shall be final [; should no such appeal be taken within sixty days, or should said appeal result in the affirmation of the action of said Board, the clerk of the circuit court or courts where said license so revoked shall have been recorded shall, upon due notice from the secretary-treasurer of said Board, strike off the name of said party from the list of licensed practitioners recorded upon said register]. At any time within two years from