

the revocation of any license the Board revoking the same may, by a vote of three members, issue without examination a new license to the person whose license was so revoked; but after the expiration of two years such person can obtain a new license only by compliance with the same requirements which are imposed on other applicants for license under this sub-title.

490 (h) Any person against whom charges, upon which a revocation or suspension of his or her certificate may be based have been made, shall be notified of the fact and a copy of the charges shall be sent him or her by the Board of Chiropody Examiners, and such shall be given a fair and impartial trial by the said Board of Chiropody Examiners whose decision shall be made by a majority of said Board of Chiropody Examiners. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the said Board of Chiropody Examiners may appeal [within thirty days] from such decision to the circuit court in the county in which the name of such person is registered, or if such resides in Baltimore City, to the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

553.

An appeal may be taken from any action of the Board relating to licenses to the several circuit courts of the counties or to the common law courts of Baltimore City, [provided said appeal shall be taken within 30 days from the date of the action of said Board, and a copy of such appeal shall be served upon a member of the Board, or the secretary,] otherwise the action of the Board shall be final.

563.

Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the State Board of Health to issue a license or by the action of the Board revoking a license may [, within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of such action or failure to act,] take an appeal therefrom to a court having equity jurisdiction in the county or in the City of Baltimore where such hospital is located or contemplated [and a copy of such appeal shall be filed with the State Board of Health]. [Within five (5) days after the receipt of such copy, the State Board of Health shall transmit to such court all the original papers pertaining to such application or action, and s] Such appeal shall [thereafter] be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be heard upon the record so transmitted, but the court may hear such additional evidence as it may deem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing, the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. Any party to said proceeding may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of Appeals of Maryland [, the procedure therein to be the same as in appeals from the action of equity courts. Pending the termination of such appeal in cases involving the revocation of a license, such court from whose decision the appeal is taken may, in its discretion, stay the operation of its decree or provide that the same shall remain in full force and effect].

574.

Any applicant for a permit, or any permit holder who shall feel aggrieved by the action of the health authority in failing to issue