

of the Code, title "Insurance", sub-title "Explosives"; sub-sections (b) and (c) of Section 352 and sub-sections (a) and (c) of Section 353 of Article 48A of the Code, title "Insurance", sub-title "Unfair and Deceptive Practices" be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Any person, copartnership, association or corporation who shall feel aggrieved by any decision or action of the Insurance Commissioner from which no appeal is now provided by this article, may appeal from such decision or action of said Insurance Commissioner [within thirty days from such decision or action,] to the circuit court of the county in which the principal office in Maryland of such person, copartnership, association or corporation is located, [of] or if located in Baltimore City, to the Superior Court of Baltimore City, for the purpose of having the decision or action of the Insurance Commissioner reviewed. The Insurance Commissioner may stay its action pending the determination of such appeal. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the circuit court or the Superior Court to the Court of Appeals by any party to the proceeding in the same manner as other appeals are taken from decrees or orders of said courts. [An appeal shall act as a stay.]

93.

The written order of the Insurance Commissioner made pursuant to Article 91 of this article, when directed to the occupant of such premises, shall be served by delivering a true copy thereof to such occupant or to any adult person apparently in charge of said premises, within five days from the date of issuance of such order; or, in case no such person is found upon the premises, then by posting a true copy thereof within five days from the date of issuance of said order in a conspicuous place on the door or other prominent entrance to said premises and by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to said occupant at his last known post office address; and if no such address be known, then by registered mail to said occupant in [case] care of general delivery at the post office serving the community in which said premises lie. When directed to the owner of such premises, such order shall be served by delivering a true copy thereof to such owner, or, if the owner is absent from the State or his whereabouts be unknown to the Commissioner, by mailing a true copy thereof by registered mail to the said owner's last known post office address, or if no such address be known, then by registered mail to said owner in care of general delivery at the post office serving the community in which said premises lie; the said delivering or mailing of such order to be accomplished within five days from the date of the issuance of such order. And in the event it is necessary to mail a copy of such order as aforesaid, the officer mailing the same shall also, within five days from the date of issuance of such order, post a true copy thereof upon said premises in the manner above provided for notice to occupants.

Provided, that every such order and copy thereof shall contain a notice that compliance therewith shall be required within a period
