

mission may stay its order pending the determination of such appeal.

225 (c) If the Commission shall determine that any applicant is not qualified to receive a license, a license shall not be granted to said applicant. And if the Commission shall determine that any license holder is guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, his or its license may be suspended or revoked. The findings made by the Commission, acting within its powers shall be subject to review by the Superior Court of Baltimore City or the circuit court in any county []; provided, that application is made by the aggrieved party within thirty days after such determination, by certiorari, mandamus or by any other method permissible under the rules and practices of said court, or the laws of this State, and said court may make such further orders in respect thereto as justice may require].

SEC. 35. And be it further enacted, That Sections 6 and 7 of Article 58A of the Code, title "Loans-Petty" be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

The Administrator of Loan Laws may, upon notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity to be heard, revoke or suspend such license upon the finding that the licensee has violated any provision of this article; and in case the licensee shall be convicted by a court a second time of a violation of Section 16 of this article, the Administrator of Loan Laws shall revoke such license; provided that the second offense shall have occurred after a prior conviction, in which case another license shall not be issued to such licensee. Upon revoking or suspending any license, the Administrator shall file in his office his finding and a statement of all facts considered by him upon which said finding is based.

The decision of the Administrator of Loan Laws in refusing to issue, revoking or suspending any license shall be subject to appeal to the circuit court of any county, or any law court of Baltimore City, in which the licensee resides or is doing business or in which the office of the Administrator of Loan Laws may be situated. [Any such appeal must be taken within thirty (30) days from the date of the decision of the Administrator of Loan Laws.] All such appeals shall be upon the record of proceedings before the Administrator of Loan Laws [which said record of proceedings shall be certified to the court by said Administrator of Loan Laws, including a statement of all facts considered by said Administrator of Loan Laws on which his finding is based]. If, upon the hearing, it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, the court may allow additional evidence to be introduced. The court may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

There shall be a further right of appeal to the Court of Appeals from the final decision of the court hearing such appeal, either by the licensee, aggrieved thereby, or by the Administrator of Loan Laws.
