

estate of said fiduciary is not being administered under the jurisdiction of an equity court, the petition shall be presented to the orphans' court of the county in which the administration was granted, the guardian gave bond, or the trustees resides.

SEC. 60. And be it further enacted, That a new Section 299A be and it is hereby added to Article 93 of the Code, title "Testamentary Law", sub-title "Register of Wills", to follow immediately after Section 299 thereof and to read as follows:

299A. Whenever any executor or administrator has in hand any funds, payable in cash, under an account duly filed in the Orphans' Court, having jurisdiction over such fiduciary, and where such fiduciary after a lapse of seven years, has been unable to locate the person or persons, to whom such cash is distributed by the account, or his or their legal representative or representatives, the Orphans' Court having jurisdiction over the fiduciary, may, on a petition of such fiduciary, if satisfied that reasonable efforts have been made by oral and written inquiry and by advertisement inserted in at least one newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Baltimore or in the county of the court having jurisdiction over said fund, for four consecutive weeks, unless in the opinion of the court the amount of funds involved does not justify the cost of such advertisement, to locate the person or persons, entitled to such funds, or their legal representative or representatives, and that such efforts have been unsuccessful, order and direct such fiduciary to pay over to the board of county commissioners or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, as the case may be, wherein such account is filed, any and all sums of cash, so remaining in his hands, and any accumulated interest thereon, after the allowance to such fiduciary of his proper costs, including the costs of such advertisement.

SEC. 61. And be it further enacted, That sub-section (h) of Section 7 of Article 95A of the Code, title "Unemployment Insurance Law", sub-title "Benefits", and sub-section (c) of Section 15 of Article 95A of the Code, title "Unemployment Insurance Law", sub-title "Collection of Contributions", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

7(h). [Within ten days after the decision of the Board of Appeals has become final, a] Any party aggrieved [thereby] by a decision of the Board of Appeals may secure judicial review thereof by appeal to the circuit court of the county or the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be [, in which appeal any other party to the proceeding before the Board of Appeals shall be made a defendant. In such appeal, a petition which need not be verified, but which shall state the grounds upon which a review is sought, shall be served upon a member of the Board of Appeals, or upon such person as the Board of Appeals may designate and such service shall be deemed completed service on all parties, but there shall be left with the party so served as many copies of the petition as there are defendants, and the Board of Appeals shall forthwith mail one such copy to each such defendant. With its answer the Board of Appeals shall certify and file with said court all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with its findings of fact and decision therein]. The Board of Appeals may [also,] in its discre-