

20.

Whenever the United States are unable to agree with the owners of the land described in § 19 of this article as to the purposes and for the purchase thereof, or if the owners for any cause are incapable of making a perfect title to the said land, the United States may institute proceedings for the condemnation of the said land for the use and benefit of the United States in the circuit court of the State for the county where the land lies, or in the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the land lies in said city, and have the land condemned for the use and benefit of the United States, such condemnation proceedings to be instituted and conducted in accordance with §§ 5 and [to] 16 [inclusive,] of this article; provided, however, that the quantity of land condemned under the provisions of this section shall not be subject to the limitations prescribed in § 16 of this article.

SEC. 63. And be it further enacted, That Section 18 of Article 96½ of the Code, title "Veterans", sub-title "Re-employment of Second World War Veterans" be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments to read as follows:

18.

A Second World War veteran, who shall feel aggrieved by the action or refusal to act of the State or other governmental unit in any case involving rights or privileges granted to such veteran by this sub-title, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the county having jurisdiction of the governmental unit involved, or to the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the State Commissioner of Personnel is involved, or if the courts of Baltimore City have jurisdiction of the governmental unit involved, and in case more than one court shall have jurisdiction of any governmental unit, the appeal may be taken to any court having jurisdiction. [Such appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) days of the action or refusal to act complained of, and u] Upon appeal, the court, without intervention of a jury, shall hear the case de novo, and shall fully determine the rights of the complaining veteran and pass an appropriate order. From the order of the lower court in any such case, there shall be an appeal to the Court of Appeals by either the veteran or the State, or other governmental unit involved.

If any Second World War veteran seeking court relief, as this section provided, shall apply to the judge of the lower court having jurisdiction of his appeal, the judge shall assign counsel to such veteran without cost to him. No court costs shall be assessed against any veteran seeking court relief as in this section provided.

SEC. 64. And be it further enacted, That sub-section (c) of Section 16 of Article 101 of the Code, title "Workmen's Compensation", sub-title "Suit—Methods of Insurance" and sub-sections (a) and (e) of Section 56 of Article 101 of the Code, title "Workmen's Compensation", sub-title "Appeals" be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

16. (c) Any such employer who may wish to adopt any one of the methods mentioned in the preceding paragraphs for assuring