

Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Civil Defense" (said Article 16A having been added to the Code by legislation enacted by the General Assembly of 1962), to follow immediately after Section 35 thereof, and to be under the new sub-title "When Powers Become Effective", providing for the times of becoming effective and for the duration of being effective of certain laws, ordinances, resolutions, and regulations of this State, of any of its political subdivisions, and of any department, board, bureau, commission, or other agency of the State, or of one of its subdivisions, which relate to or concern a civil defense emergency or disaster, actual or threatened; and providing also for non-emergency powers of civil defense and of civil defense agencies.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new Section 36 be and it is hereby added to Article 16A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Civil Defense" (said Article 16A having been added to the Code by legislation enacted by the General Assembly of 1962), to follow immediately after Section 35 thereof, and to be under the new sub-title "When Powers Become Effective", and to read as follows:

When Powers Become Effective

All laws, ordinances, resolutions, and regulations of this State and of any of its political subdivisions, and of any board, department, bureau, commission, or other agency of the State or of one of its political subdivisions, which relate to or concern a civil defense emergency or disaster, actual or threatened, military or warlike catastrophe, are applicable and may be applied during the effective period of an official proclamation of the Governor of this State declaring a portion or all of the particular area to be within a civil defense emergency or disaster area, actual or threatened. The provisions of this section do not qualify or reduce powers of civil defense or of civil defense agencies which for their effectiveness do not depend upon the existence of an emergency or upon a proclamation by the Governor.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1962.

Approved March 23, 1962.
