

2. If there was at that time in his blood more than five one-hundredths of one percentum (0.05%), but less than fifteen one-hundredths of one percentum (0.15%), by weight, of alcohol, [or if an equivalent quantity of alcohol was contained in two thousand cubic centimeters of his breath (true breath or alveolar air having 5½ per centum of carbon dioxide),] as determined by an analysis of his blood or breath, or if there was in his urine more than eight one-hundredths of one percentum (0.8%), but less than twenty one-hundredths of one percentum (0.20%), by weight, of alcohol, such fact shall not give rise to any presumption that the defendant was or was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor, but such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant;

3. If there was at that time in his blood fifteen one-hundredths of one percentum (0.15%), or more, by weight, of alcohol, [or if an equivalent quantity of alcohol was contained in two thousand cubic centimeters of his breath (true breath or alveolar air having 5½ percentum of carbon dioxide),] as determined by an analysis of his blood or breath, or if there was in his urine twenty one-hundredths of one percentum (0.20%), or more, by weight, of alcohol, it shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1962.

Approved March 23, 1962.
