

Miscellaneous

701.

For the purpose of increasing the efficiency in the treatment, management, and rehabilitation of persons committed to the institutions under the control of the Department of Correction, there shall be full and complete interchange between the Department of Correction and the Department of Parole and Probation of records and all pertinent information relating to each of the persons so committed. It is the duty of said departments to provide the procedures and methods for the interchange of the records and information as required by this section.

702.

It is lawful for the Department of Correction on such terms and conditions as it may prescribe to receive into custody ~~and put to labor~~ any person who is sentenced to imprisonment in the ~~Maryland Penitentiary or in the Maryland House of Correction~~ INSTITUTIONS UNDER ITS JURISDICTION by the courts of the United States for the District of Maryland, and any person who is sentenced to imprisonment by the courts of the United States for the District of Maryland, while in such institutions, is subject to the same rules and discipline to which other ~~convicts~~ INMATES from the State courts are subjected.

703.

The Criminal Court of Baltimore and the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel County, at each term of court, shall charge the grand jury attending thereupon to inquire into the conduct and management of each of said institutions within the jurisdiction of said court, and shall make presentments of all offenses and omissions of any person in or relating to said institution.

704.

It is the duty of the Department of Correction to cause regular inspections to be made of the several county and Baltimore City jails, lockups, ~~prison~~ JAIL farms, and other places used for the detention or confinement of offenders against the laws of the State of Maryland, and to submit a report to the county commissioners of the several counties and the mayor and city council of Baltimore, showing the results of such inspection, together with recommendations as to any improvements which should be made. In the event that the county commissioners of any county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore provide for making improvements to the jail or to the ~~prison~~ JAIL farm of said county or city, the State, through the Board of Public Works, may make provision for paying one-fourth of the costs of such improvements.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Department of Correction herein constituted is a continuation of the Board of Correction and of the Department of Correction as they existed prior to the effective date of this Act, subject to the changes and modifications herein provided.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all property, real, personal, and mixed, of the Department of Correction and of the Board