

and effect of law after approval by the Governor, at the time the next State budget takes effect, if funds for such pay plan are provided therein. Amendments thereto may, from time to time, be recommended by the Board and when approved by the Governor and so included in the next State budget shall have the force of law in the same manner as if they had been originally incorporated in the schedule. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore, and solely in cases of acute emergency, amendments may be made from time to time in the pay plan to take effect at any time prior to the effective date of the next State budget, if the amendment is necessary in order to procure or to retain in the State service, essential career administrative employees, performing executive functions, or essential professional or technical employees, and upon approval of the Board of Public Works, after recommendation by the Board, shall have the force of law in the same manner as if they had been originally incorporated in the schedule. Wherever the Board shall find that there is an increase in the market value of services performed by any class, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Personnel to identify and present to the Board for consideration at the same time all other related classes which are affected by the same change in market value. Each employee in the classified and in the unclassified service shall be paid at one of the rates set forth in the pay plan for the grade or class of positions in which he is employed. The pay plan shall be used by the Governor in the preparation and submission of his budget. Provided, however, that positions upon the faculties of the University of Maryland, State teachers' colleges and Morgan State College, all registrars and librarians [on the staffs] designated as holding faculty rank by the respective Boards of Trustees of the State teachers' colleges, St. Mary's Female Seminary, Morgan State College and University of Maryland, but not the non-instructional personnel of such institutions, shall be excluded from said pay plan and from the jurisdiction of the State Employees Standard Salary Board.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1962.

Approved March 23, 1962.
