An ACT to open a road in Cæcil county from Archibald Dyfart's towards Hugh Ramsay's tavern.

Passed Jan. 18.

WHEREAS provision hath been made by the legislature of Pennsylvania to lay out a new road, in as streight a direction as the nature of the ground will admit, from Hugh Ramsay's tavern, in Chester county, to Archibald Dyfart's tavern, in Cæcil county, which road can be opened by the legislature of said state only as far as the line thereof; and it appearing that the said road, so to be opened, can be of no utility unless the same can be extended through this state as far as said Dyfart's tavern; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Cæcil county be and are hereby authorized, in their discretion, on the application of two thirds of the taxable inhabitants of North Milford and East Nottingham hundreds therefor, to lay out and open a road, beginning at the Maryland line where the said line is intersected by a new road which is laid out, or intended to be laid out, from said Ramsay's toward said Dyfart's tavern, and to be extended through Cæcil county, in as streight a line as the nature of the ground will admit, until it intersects the road from Fair Hill to said Dyfart's tavern, and the said road shall be laid out in such manner as the levy court is authorized to lay out, streighten and amend public roads in said county; provided no part of the money levied, or hereafter to be levied, on Cæcil county, shall be expended in opening, making, or at any time hereafter in repairing, the said road.

An ACT for the relief of Thomas Randall, of Baltimore county.

Passed Jan. 18.

WHEREAS it appears to this general assembly, that a certain Philip Littick contracted with the commissioners of the late proprietary for the purchase of thirty-seven acres of land, part of the reserve land in Baltimore county, and had surveyed for him on the tenth day of January, seventeen hundred and seventy-one, the land so purchased, as appears by the certificate thereof; that the said Philip Littick made an assignment on the twenty-fifth day of January, seventeen hundred and seventy-two, of all his right and title to the certificate of the said land unto the said Thomas Randall, having first paid to the commissioners aforesaid the sum of one pound fourteen shillings and ten-pence halfpenny, in part of the purchase money; that an act of assembly passed at November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-one, authorizing the commissioners for confiscated property to call on all persons who entered into agreements with the late proprietary, or his commissioners, for the purchase of manor lands, to pay the money by them agreed to be paid, and upon such payment to release and convey the right of the state to the purchaser: that the said Thomas Randall paid to the said commissioners the sum of eight pounds eighteen shillings and seven-pence halfpenny sterling, being the balance of the sum due for the purchase of the said land, and interest thereon, and on the seventh day of June, seventeen hundred and eighty-two, obtained a deed from the commissioners aforesaid for the land aforesaid, as being part of the reserve or manor lands in Baltimore county, but without other description, or any courses being expressed in the said deed; and there being no record in any office of the metes, bounds, courses and distances, of the said land, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land-office be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue a patent, in favour of the said Thomas Randall, for all that tract or parcel of land called Friendship, containing thirty-seven acres, more or less, according to the courses, distances and expressions, as set forth in an original certificate thereof
