

(b) If the court or the jury, as the case may be, shall find and determine that the said defendant is a defective delinquent, the court shall so inform the defendant, and shall order him to be committed or returned to the institution for confinement as a defective delinquent, for an indeterminate period without either maximum or minimum limits. In such event, the sentence for the original criminal conviction, or any unexpired portion thereof, shall be and remain suspended, and the defendant shall no longer be confined for any portion of said original sentence, except as otherwise provided herein. Instead, the defendant shall thenceforth remain in the custody of the institution for defective delinquents, subject to the provisions of this article.

(a) After any person shall have been committed under Section 9(b) as a defective delinquent, shall have been confined for two years [as a defective delinquent under an indeterminate sentence in any institution for defective delinquents, he] after such commitment, and shall have been confined for a total period, including any period of confinement under his original sentence prior to commitment under Section 9(b), equal to two-thirds of his original sentence, such person, or anyone in his behalf, including the director or any officer or employee [thereof] of Patuxent Institution, may file a petition requesting that such person be brought before the court in which such petition is filed for the purpose of having the defective delinquency of such person re-determined. Such a petition may be filed in the law courts of the county [.] or Baltimore City, as the case may be, either where such person was originally sentenced [.] or which was the bona fide residence of such person when originally sentenced. [the petitioner at the time of such sentence, requesting that the person so confined be brought before said court for the purpose of having the defective delinquency of such person redetermined. Provided, however, that if the law court of the county or Baltimore City, as the case may be, from which he was originally sentenced or in which he was a bona fide resident at the time of such sentence are one and the same, the petitioner shall have an absolute right to file his petition in the law court of any other county or in Baltimore City.] The court shall forthwith proceed to hear and determine the matter. If the person so confined, or anyone in his behalf, shall pray a jury trial, the court shall empanel a jury of twelve persons to be selected by the court from the jurors then in attendance upon said court; or if the court is in recess, the jurors shall be selected from those in attendance at the term of court at which said petition is heard. Any party in interest shall have the right to counsel and to process to compel the attendance of witnesses. If the court or jury, as the case may be, shall determine that such person is a defective delinquent, the court shall order said person recommitted to the institution from which he immediately came; otherwise he shall be discharged from such confinement and custody, or in the discretion of the court committed under his original sentence, less such time as he has already served in the institution for defective delinquents or [elsewhere] within the custody of the Board of Correction, including such allowances (or disallowances) relating to good behavior and/or work performed as the Board of Correction may determine under the provisions of Section 688 of Article 27 of the Code which shall apply to such person's period of commitment to Patuxent Institution with
