

Correction, to serve the original sentence upon which he was committed prior to being classified as a defective delinquent [deducting from such original sentence the time which has been spent in the custody of the institution for defective delinquents, or elsewhere within the custody of the Board of Correction, including]. Upon return of a person to the custody of the Department of Correction there shall be deducted from the original sentence all time spent in the custody of Patuxent Institution and in the custody of the Department of Correction. The Department shall make such allowances or (disallowances) relating to good behavior and/or work performed as the Board of Correction may determine under the provisions of Section 688 of Article 27 of the Code. Patuxent Institution shall furnish the Department of Correction with such information from the records of such person's period of confinement in the Institution as the Board of Correction shall reasonably require for determining the application of the said Section 688, which shall apply to such person's period of commitment to Patuxent Institution with any variation of the regulations issued under said section as the Board of Correction shall consider appropriate in the particular case. The power of the court to provide for a leave of absence or parole for any such person before it shall be the same as that of the Institutional Board of Review, described hereinabove in this section, except that once the person has entered upon the leave of absence or parole, the Board shall have the administration of the terms and conditions of the leave or parole as set by the court. If the person before the court is returned to the custody of the Institution as a defective delinquent, it shall continue to be for an indefinite period, without either maximum or minimum limits, subject to the review and re-examination by the institutional Board of Review, as provided hereinabove in this section.

14. Nothing in this article shall be construed to extend to or affect any case in a juvenile court or in the court of a magistrate for juvenile causes, or any person involved in such case, unless the juvenile court judge shall have waived jurisdiction in the case so that it may be heard and adjudicated in a regular criminal court. Provided however, that the provisions of this article shall apply to any adult who has been found guilty and sentenced by one of the several juvenile courts in this State when said juvenile court is exercising its original jurisdiction as provided in Sections 53 and 55 of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland. ~~(1957 Edition)~~.

15. Nothing in this article shall be construed to extend to or affect any case in the court of a magistrate or justice of the peace, or any person involved in such case, unless by reason of a request for a jury trial or for other cause the case shall be heard and adjudicated in a regular criminal court. Provided, however, that the Criminal Court of Baltimore City shall have jurisdiction of a person convicted and sentenced by the Municipal Court of Baltimore City if the crime, offense, crimes or offenses, for which he has been convicted and sentenced are within one or more of the categories listed in Section 6 of this article.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

[16. Nothing in this article shall be construed to extend to or to affect any person who on June 1, 1954, is held as an inmate or prisoner of any penal institution operated and supervised by the Depart-