

any such record shall be admissible in evidence for the purposes of proving the fact of the conviction and the crime for which such defective delinquent was convicted.

(d) A copy of such record shall be furnished, upon request, to any warden or other officer in charge of a prison for felons in any other state of the United States; provided that such state has made reciprocal provisions by law for furnishing records of its convicted criminals to the authorities of this State.

(e) Said Institution shall furnish a copy of such record of any defective delinquent to any police officer presenting an order for such copy signed by the officer in charge of police of any county or municipality.

(f) Whenever a person shall be convicted of crime and committed to the said Institution, the clerk of the court involved shall, unless advised by said Institution that records are available from the Department of Correction, make and forward as soon as practicable, but not later than thirty days from time of commitment, to said Institution, a record containing, with regard to the criminal trial, a short copy of the docket entries, the name and address of the judge presiding at the trial, the State's Attorney and sheriff, and the names and addresses of the jurors and the names of the witnesses sworn on the trial, together with a statement of any facts which the presiding judge may deem important or necessary for a full comprehension of the case. In each case in which he shall perform the duties required by this Section, the clerk of the court shall be entitled to one dollar as compensation, which shall be taxed as a part of the costs of said case.

(g) For the purpose of increasing the efficiency in the treatment, management and rehabilitation of persons committed to said Institution there shall be full and complete interchange between said Institution and the Departments of Correction and of Parole and Probation of records and all pertinent information relating to each of the persons so committed. It shall be the duty of said department to provide the procedures and methods for the interchange of the records and information as required by this Section.

19. The said Board UPON THE APPROVAL OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS, THE BOARD OF PATUXENT INSTITUTION is hereby empowered in its discretion to apply for and receive from the Federal government or any board, bureau, commission, department or other agency thereof any funds, chattels, or foodstuffs by way of grant or loan that may be available to be used in the establishment, maintenance or program of the said Institution. ~~on such terms as said Board shall approve, provided there be no requirement to apply the said funds, chattels or foodstuffs, or any part thereof in contravention of any provision of Maryland law relating to such institution, and provided further that no such funds, chattels or foodstuffs shall be accepted by way of loan without the approval of the Board of Public Works first having been obtained and that in no event shall the credit of the State of Maryland or any political subdivision thereof be involved or pledged to secure the return of said loan and that repayment thereof with the interest, if any, shall only be made out of the accrued net profits earned in the operation of the State use system to which reference is made in Section 680 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition) and by Section 17 of this Article.~~