

hereafter voluntarily retires from active service after reaching the age of sixty-five years and resumes the practice of law, shall not be entitled to the pension or salary provided by this subsection, or any portion thereof. In the event that a retired judge engaged in the practice of law should thereafter relinquish such practice and notify the County Commissioners and County Treasurer of Prince George's County of such fact, then, from and after the date of such notification the judge shall be entitled to all the benefits provided by this subsection. This subsection shall apply to all judges already retired from active service except as provided herein. Any former judge who accepts any salaried public office or position, municipal, county, State or federal, shall not be paid any pension or salary so long as he remains in such office or position. In the event that a retired judge serving in any salaried public office or position as above enumerated, should thereafter relinquish such office or position and notify the County Commissioners and County Treasurer of Prince George's County of such fact, then from and after the date of such notification the judge shall be entitled to all the benefits as provided by this subsection. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County are hereby expressly authorized to levy for and pay pensions and salaries, to such former judges of the People's Court who served on the said court upon the terms and for the periods as herein provided; and any such provision heretofore made is hereby ratified and confirmed.

(g) The widow of every full-time judge who dies in active service shall be paid one-half of the pension to which such judge would have been entitled on the date of his death if he had been eligible for retirement and had retired on said date irrespective of whether he shall have attained the age of 65 at the date of his death. The widow of every such judge who dies after retiring shall be paid one-half of the pension which such judge was receiving at the date of his death. In order to be entitled to the pension provided by this subsection, a widow of a judge who dies during active service shall have been married to him for a period of not less than three years prior to his death, and, in the case of a death of a retired judge, not less than three years before his retirement. A widow who is entitled to a pension under the provisions of this subsection shall be paid for the period of her life unless she remarries, in which event the pension is to cease and terminate. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to the widows who have not remarried and who are otherwise qualified as provided herein, or judges who died before ~~May 1, 1962~~ JANUARY 1, 1962.

(a) The county commissioners shall provide such clerical assistance, and pay such compensation therefor, as said commissioners may deem reasonably necessary for any trial magistrate. The appointment of clerical assistants shall be made by the trial magistrate to be thus served, when provision therefor is made by the county commissioners; except that in Montgomery, Allegany, and Kent [and Prince George's] counties such clerical assistants shall be appointed by the county commissioners of said counties. In counties in which provision is made by the county commissioners for clerical assistants, the trial magistrates shall direct and supervise the services to be rendered by said assistants. In Anne Arundel County the clerks
