

such project or projects, and the supervision thereof, the employment of consulting engineers, auditors, attorneys and other experts in connection with any such acquisition, construction, maintenance or operation; (c) the terms and provisions of the bonds and the securing of the proceeds thereof, the imposition and collection of assessments, charges and rentals for the use of any such project or projects and the use, application and securing of any revenues so collected, including the establishment, deposit and securing from any such revenues of reserves for debt service on, or prior redemption of, any such revenue bonds, or for the maintenance, operation and improvement of any such project or projects; (d) the insurance on any such project or projects; (e) the issuance of additional revenue bonds for any such project or projects and the limitations thereon; (f) the powers, duties and indemnification of any trustee, or its successor, party to any such trust indenture; (g) the rights and remedies of said trustee and of bondholders in the event of any default by the District under any such trust indenture, which rights and remedies may include the taking over of any operation by said trustee or by a receiver appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction of the project or projects financed with the proceeds of any such issue of revenue bonds secured by such trust indenture, and the marshalling of the revenues from any such project or projects for the use and benefit of bondholders. In addition to the covenants enumerated above but subject to the limitations herein contained, the District is hereby authorized and empowered to make such further additional covenants in any such trust indenture, of like or different character as, in its judgment, may be necessary, convenient or desirable for the better security of any issue of its revenue bonds secured by any such trust indenture or as will, in its judgment, tend to make any such bonds more marketable.

536. Temporary Bonds; Further Powers; Exclusion from Limitations.

Prior to the preparation of the definitive bonds authorized to be issued by Sections 534 and 535 of this sub-title, the District may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds, when such definitive bonds have been executed and are available for delivery. In addition, the District may, in anticipation of the issuance of any such bonds, issue bond anticipation notes pursuant to the authority of, and in the manner prescribed by, Section 12 of Article 31 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition). With respect to any such bonds, coupons, temporary bonds, receipts or bond anticipation notes, which have matured, been exchanged or redeemed, the Commission shall make arrangements for the mutilation and and cremation of any such instruments after an appropriate accounting therefor. The Commission may also provide for the replacement of any such instruments which shall become mutilated or be destroyed or lost, upon receipt of such indemnification, and the payment of the expenses of replacement as the Commission, in its discretion, may deem proper or requisite. Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this sub-title without obtaining the approval or consent of any division, commission, board, bureau or agency of the State of Maryland and, except as provided in Section ~~533(a)~~ 534(A) of this sub-title, without any other proceeding or the happening of any other condition or thing than those proceedings, conditions or things which are spe-
