

(iii) The Commission shall then deduct such total from the amounts so needed and the difference, if any, shall be the amount to be raised by the levy of said ad valorem tax in said sub-district in the ensuing fiscal year.

(iv) Thereupon, the Commission shall certify such amount to the County which shall fix and levy such ad valorem tax at a rate sufficient to produce the required amount.

Said tax, when levied, shall have the same priority, bear the same interest and penalties and in every respect be treated the same as County taxes levied in said sub-district. Every sixty days, the County Treasurer shall remit to the Commission the proceeds of said tax collected since the prior remittance and the Commission shall credit and apportion said proceeds to and among the several expenditure accounts on its books for which said tax was levied. Upon the closing of any such account, any surplus tax proceeds credited thereto may be transferred by the Commission to any other such account in which there is a deficiency or may be expended on any other project or projects in the sub-district or may be held by the Commission as a credit for use in calculating the amount of ad valorem tax to be levied in the following fiscal year.

(b) Nothing contained in sub-paragraph (a) above shall be construed as in any manner relieving the County of its unconditional pledge of its full faith and credit to the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds issued by the District pursuant to Section 534 of this sub-title, and, if the revenues provided in this sub-title shall at any time be insufficient to pay said principal and interest, the County is hereby directed to levy upon all property in the County subject to unlimited County taxation, an ad valorem tax in rate and amount sufficient to make up the deficiency.

[(b)] (c) In order that the prompt payment of interest and the proper provision for the payment of the principal of [said] bonds of the District shall be assured, the prompt and proper performance of the respective acts and duties heretofore defined is specifically enjoined, and any failure upon the part of any person, persons, body corporate or agent to perform the necessary acts and duties [hereafter] herein set forth, to pay over the said funds as required, or to use said funds or any part thereof for any other purposes than [for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds] those set forth in sub-paragraph (a) of this Section is hereby declared a misdemeanor and punishable as other misdemeanors are punishable under the provisions of Section 551 of this sub-title.

541. Connections with Water and Sewer Lines.

The Commission shall provide for each and every property abutting upon a street or right-of-way in which under this sub-title a water main or sewer is laid, a water service pipe or sewer connection, which shall be extended as required, from the water main or sewer to the property line of [the] each such abutting lot [.] . [said] Said service pipe or connection with sewer shall be constructed by and at the [sole] expense of the [Commission] District [but subject to] to be recovered by a reasonable charge by the District for [said] each such connection [as provided in Section 539 of this sub-title], which said charge shall be uniform throughout each sub-district and shall be paid by [all] each property [owners] owner at the office of the
