26A-18. The Redevelopment and Rehabilitation Commission may dispose of real property in an urban renewal area to private persons only under such reasonable competitive bidding procedures as it shall prescribe or as herein after provided in this section. The Commission may, by public notice by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in the community (thirty days prior to the execution of any contract to sell, lease or otherwise transfer real property and prior to the delivery of any instrument of conveyance with respect thereto under the provisions of this section) invite proposals from and make available all pertinent information to private redevelopers or any persons interested in undertaking to redevelop or rehabilitate an urban renewal area, or any part thereof. Such notice shall identify the area, or portion thereof, and shall state that proposals shall be made by those interested within thirty days after the date of publication of said notice, and that such further information as is available may be obtained at such office as shall be designated in said notice. The Commission shall consider all such redevelopment or rehabilitation proposals and the financial and legal ability of the persons making such proposals to carry them out, and may negotiate with any persons for proposals for the purchase, lease or other transfer of any real property acquired by the ~~municipality~~ COMMISSION in the urban renewal area. The Commission may accept such proposal as it deems to be in the public interest and in furtherance of the purposes of this Act. Thereafter, the Commission may execute and deliver contracts, deeds, leases and other instruments and take all steps necessary to effectuate such transfers.

26A-19. The Redevelopment and Rehabilitation Commission may temporarily operate and maintain real property acquired by it in an urban renewal area for or in connection with an urban renewal project pending the disposition of the property as authorized in this Act, without regard to the provisions of section 26A-17 above, for such uses and purposes as may be deemed desirable even though not in conformity with the urban renewal plan.

26A-20. Any instrument executed by the Commission and purporting to convey any right, title or interest in any property under this Act shall be conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with the provisions of this Act insofar as title or other interest of any bona fide purchasers, lessees or transferees of such property is concerned.

26A-21. Condemnation of land or property under the provisions of this Act shall be in accordance with the procedure provided in Article 33A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition, as amended) and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto.

26A-22. The Commission, to the greatest extent it determines to be feasible in carrying out the provisions of this Act, shall afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the ~~Municipality~~ COUNTY as a whole, to the rehabilitation or redevelopment of any urban renewal area by private enterprise. The Commission shall give consideration to this objective in exercising its powers under this Act.
