

whom a permit has been issued under the provisions of this ordinance, has fraudulently obtained such permit, or has violated any of the provisions of this subtitle or that any agent or representative of a permit holder has misrepresented the purposes of the solicitation, such permit may be revoked upon five days' notice in writing by the Clerk to the permittee, which notice shall set a time and place for hearing. Such hearing shall be had before the County Commissioners, and if it should appear that such permittee has violated any of the provisions of this ordinance, or has fraudulently obtained such permit, then the County Commissioners shall have power to revoke such permit.

Whenever such notice of a hearing shall be served upon the holder of a permit, no further solicitation shall be done by such permittee until after the result of said hearing has been determined.

Permits herein required shall be on a form approved by the County Commissioners, and shall bear the name and address of the organization by whom the solicitation is made, and shall state that the permit does not constitute an endorsement by the County or any of its officers, of the purpose of the organization or individual conducting the solicitation.

148H.

It shall be the duty of all persons, organizations, societies, associations and corporations, to whom permits have been issued as provided by this ordinance, to furnish proper credentials to their agents and representatives for such solicitation, which credentials shall be in the form approved by the County Commissioners.

It shall be the duty of all successful applicants for permits herein provided for, to furnish to the County Commissioners, within thirty days after the solicitation has been completed, a verified detailed report and financial statement, including the amount of cash raised by solicitation, the amount pledged for future payments, the amount expended in collecting such funds, and a detailed statement of the final disposition of such funds. If such funds are collected over a period of time, supplemental statements shall be filed every thirty days, covering the amount of collections, and the final disposition of the funds so collected, until the whole of said funds pledged and collected have been accounted for.

Failure to furnish said report within the time herein specified shall subject the applicant to the penalties hereinafter provided.

Nothing herein shall be construed as applying to any established religious society organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and not operated for the pecuniary profit of any person, if the solicitations by such established religious society are conducted among the members thereof by other members or officers thereof, voluntarily and without remuneration for making such solicitations, or if the solicitations are in the form of collections or contributions
