CHAPTER 153

(Senate Bill 80)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments, Section 714(r) of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1960 Supplement), title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Oysters and Clams", correcting an error in the laws relating to penalties for the violation of certain provisions concerning the clam laws applicable in Queen Anne's County.

WHEREAS, in the clam laws which apply to Queen Anne's County, and in that portion which concerns penalties, there is a reference to certain "sub-titles"; and

WHEREAS, this reference obviously should be to "sub-sections" and should be corrected to avoid any confusion in the application of this law; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 714(r) of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1960 Supplement) title "Natural Resources", sub-title "Oysters and Clams", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

714.

(r) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, unless otherwise herein specified, shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00).

(1) Excepting violations of [sub-titles] sub-sections (c), (d), (e), (f) and (j), any person found guilty by a court of law of three violations of the provisions of this section within any twelve (12) month period may, in addition to the fine herein prescribed, have his license suspended or revoked by the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries, after a hearing thereon by the Commission after ten (10)
