Whenever the Board has information that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice which in the Board's judgment constitutes or will constitute a violation of Section 13, the Board with the approval and representation of the Attorney General may apply in the name of the State of Maryland to an appropriate court of equity for an injunction against such act or practice; and upon a finding by the court after due hearing that such person has engaged or is about to engage in any such act or practice, the court shall issue an injunction or such other order as it may deem appropriate.

16.

Any person who violates any provisions of Section 13 of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subjected to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for not more than six months. Whenever the Board has reason to believe that any person is liable to punishment under this section it may certify the facts to the Attorney General, who may in his discretion take, direct or recommend any action or proceedings that he may deem appropriate. ANY PERSON WHO VIOLATES ANY PROVISIONS OF SECTION 13 OF THIS ARTICLE SHALL BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR AND UPON CONVICTION THEREOF SHALL BE SUBJECT TO A FINE OF NOT LESS THAN FIFTY DOLLARS NOR MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS, OR TO IMPRISONMENT FOR NOT MORE THAN SIX MONTHS.

17.

The use, display or uttering by a person of a letterhead, card, sign, advertisement, directory classification, or other instrument or device bearing his name, in conjunction with the words "certified public accountant", or "public accountant", or any abbreviation thereof, shall be prima facie evidence in any proceeding under Sections 15 or 16 that such person is holding himself out to be a certified public accountant or public accountant holding an enrollment certificate. In any such action evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this article shall be sufficient to justify an injunction or a conviction without evidence of a general course of conduct.

18.

The Board may enlist the services of the Attorney General of Maryland or his assistants in any hearing or litigation under Sections 12 or 15, or in any action or proceeding brought by or against the Board or its members or personnel in connection with any act done or omitted under color of its or their office, or in any other matter pertaining to the interpretation, administration or enforcement of this article.
