

WHEREAS, the problem of beach and shore erosion in the State of Maryland has assumed alarming proportions; and

WHEREAS, lack of action on the part of the governmental agencies of this State may result in the loss of much of the State's valuable public beaches and of its shoreline; and

WHEREAS, failure on the part of the State to establish an official agency to deal with the problem of beach and shore erosion and to work in conjunction with the Beach and Shore Erosion Commission of the Federal Government may have the result of preventing Maryland from qualifying for the benefits provided by said Federal agency; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Legislative Council be requested to appoint a sub-committee to study the problem of beach and shore erosion and the need for establishing a State agency to deal with said problem; and be it further

Resolved, That said sub-committee submit a report of its study and any recommendations to the Governor, the Legislative Council and the members of the General Assembly by October 15, 1961.

Approved May 3, 1961.

---

No. 41

(House Joint Resolution 59)

House Joint Resolution to request reappointment of the Governor's Committee on Migratory Bird Laws to serve as an advisory committee to the Game and Inland Fish Commission.

WHEREAS, Pursuant to Joint Resolution 34 of 1959 (House Joint Resolution No. 32) the Governor appointed a committee representative of all geographical areas of the state to consider uniformity in Federal and State laws and regulations governing the hunting of migratory birds, such committee completed its work and has reported to the Governor and the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Because of the splendid work done by the Committee, it would be desirable to reappoint the committee to serve as an advisory committee to the Game and Inland Fish Commission, by studying wildlife and inland fish matters and submitting recommendations to the Game and Inland Fish Commission; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor of Maryland is requested to reappoint the Migratory Bird Law Commission previously appointed under Joint Resolution 34 of 1959 with a composition similar to that called to under Joint Resolution 34, namely, one member of the General Assembly, the Director of the Game and Inland Fish Commission, and one representative each from: the Associated Sportsmen's Clubs of the Eastern Shore, the Central Association of Sportsmen's Clubs, the Western Association