

and re-enacted with amendments; and that Sections 174, 176, 177 and 179 of said Article, sub-title and sub-heading, Section 176 thereof having been amended by Chapter 670 of the Acts of 1949, be and they are hereby repealed, as follows:

162. There shall be a treasurer of Dorchester County, who also shall be the collector of all State taxes and of all county taxes for whatsoever purpose levied or to be levied, for or within said county, during the term of his office, or that may be placed in his hands for collection; and he shall have full power, and it shall be his duty to receive and collect all State and county taxes levied as aforesaid, [after this Act shall take effect,] and so put in his hands for collection, and all moneys due and owed to the said county from any and every source whatever, [including the taxes charged on mortgages,] and he shall disburse all said moneys under the provisions of law and under the order of the County Commissioners, with full power to enforce the payment of same by sale or otherwise [as hereinafter prescribed,] and to convey the title of any real or personal estate sold by him for the payment of State or county taxes in the manner prescribed by the [succeeding sections. And it] tax sale laws as found in the sub-title "Tax Sales" in Article 81 of the Annotated Code. It shall also be the duty of said treasurer to keep a full and fair cash account, showing all sums of money received by him so as to indicate the source whence the same was received, respectively, and showing all sums of money paid by him, either to the County Commissioners or to the Treasurer of Maryland. It shall further be his duty to promptly deposit any and all moneys by him received and collected in some bank or banks, or other banking institution in Dorchester County, to be designated and approved by the County Commissioners, and in designating and approving such place or places of deposit the said Commissioners shall prefer the bank or banks, or other banking institution which will agree to pay interest on monthly balances or deposits rather than any bank or banks or institution which will not pay said interest, and before making said deposits the treasurer may require said bank, banks or other banking institution to give bond or other security to said treasurer to guarantee the safety of said deposits; said bond or bonds or securities to be approved by the said County Commissioners.

171. The County Treasurer shall cause to be delivered or mailed to each and every delinquent taxpayer between the first day of July and the 31st day of July in each year an account of his assessment, and the taxes, interest and cost thereon, with a notice of warning to such delinquent thereto attached that, unless payment be made in full on or before the 15th day of August next, the same will be collected by process of law; and if on the said 15th day of August next, the said taxes, interest, and cost are unpaid, he shall immediately thereafter make up an additional list of all delinquents assessed with real estate, giving the name of the persons assessed, with a brief description of the property, the district of its location and such references to conveyances as will render the same possible of identification, together with the amount of taxes due and in arrears thereon, including all taxes on personalty due from the owner of said real estate, with interest, costs, and expenses accrued, and to accrue to day of sale, with a notice appended that if said taxes, interest, costs and expenses are not paid on or before the second Tuesday in October next ensuing, the County Treasurer in person or by deputy will proceed [at 10 o'clock A.M., on that day at the Court House in said