

first Monday in February, on the [second] first Monday in May, on the [third] second Monday in September and on the second Monday in December in each and every year, to which terms, in February and September, both grand and petit jurors shall be summoned, and to which May and December terms, no jurors shall be summoned. The trial term of such court for the cases depending therein upon issues of facts to be tried by a jury shall be the term to which jurors shall be summoned next succeeding the terms to which original process may be returnable. The drawing of jurors for the jury terms of such court shall be in all respects as is prescribed by law [ ]; [except, that for the December term and not less than fifteen days before the same, there shall be drawn from the names remaining in the box from which the jury for the preceding September term was drawn, twenty-five names, which shall constitute the petit jurors for the December term, subject to the provisions and regulations applicable to the correction and completion of the jurors drawn for the other jury terms]. The circuit court shall have full power to reconvene, during any May term of such court, the grand jury and petit jury summoned for the preceding February term and to reconvene, during any December term of such court, the grand jury and petit jury summoned for the preceding September term whenever and as often, in each instance, as in the judgment of such court, the public interests may be thereby subserved. Such jurors, when so reconvened, shall have in all respects the same power and authority to act as they respectively had during the terms for which they were originally summoned.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1961.

Approved March 28, 1961.
