

provisions of this section are subject to the requirements of section 18A of Article 88A of this Code.

(Article 70A)

10. Funeral Expenses.

On the death of the recipient reasonable funeral expenses, not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00) may be paid by the county department if the estate of the deceased is insufficient to pay the same and the persons legally responsible for the support of the deceased are unable to pay the same. The cost of any such payments shall be charged two thirds to State funds and one third to local funds. The provisions of this section are subject to the requirements of section 18A of Article 88A of this Code.

17. Annual appropriations.

The county commissioners of each county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall annually levy or appropriate an amount sufficient to provide for one-sixth of all assistance paid or to be paid within said county or city. Provided, however, that the county commissioners of each county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall not be obligated to pay any sums as assistance in excess of one-sixth of the total of all assistance paid or to be paid within said county or city hereunder, except to the extent that funds may be available in the State Treasury. The provisions of this section are subject to the requirements of section 18A of Article 88A of this Code.

(Article 88A)

56. Tax levy; appropriations.

The county commissioners of each county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall annually levy one cent (1¢) on each one hundred dollars of assessable property to carry out the provisions of this sub-title, or shall provide for the same out of general revenue; provided that the county commissioners of each county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore shall not be required to appropriate from taxes so levied, or from general revenue, more than is necessary to pay those costs of the program remaining after full use of all matching funds made available to the said county, or Baltimore, by federal legislation. The county commissioners of each county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore may levy for or appropriate, with the approval of the State Department, additional funds, to be turned over to the State Comptroller and expended to effectuate the purposes of this sub-title. The provisions of this section are subject to the requirements of section 18A of Article 88A of this Code.

13. County welfare boards—Creation; authorities; costs; Carroll County.

(b) Administrative costs. Administrative costs of the county welfare boards for the purpose of this section shall be paid out of funds derived from local sources or out of allotments from State or federal funds, or any of them, as the State Department of Public Welfare may prescribe. The county commissioners of each county and the mayor and city council of Baltimore are hereby empowered
