

repair, operation and insurance of the housing unit or housing units in connection with which such bonds shall have been authorized, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys, and provisions for the employment of independent consultants in connection with the construction or operation of such housing unit or housing units. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the State which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by said University. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds and debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement may contain such other provisions as said University may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders, including covenants to abandon, restrict or prohibit the construction or operation of competing facilities. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of any such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the housing unit or housing units.

259E. The University of Maryland is hereby authorized (a) to fix, revise, charge and collect fees, rents and other charges from any individual, or group or association of individuals, authorized to use any housing unit or any part thereof and to make mandatory the payments of such fees and charges; (b) to contract with any individual, or group or association of individuals, authorized and desiring to use any housing unit or part thereof, for the use of the same and to fix the terms, conditions, fees, rents and rates of charges for such use; (c) to contract for the use of all or any part of such housing unit or housing units with any person, partnership, association, corporation, entity or agency thereof desiring to use all or any part of such housing unit or housing units, and to fix the terms, conditions, fees, rents and rates of charges for such use. The fees, rents, charges and revenues from the housing unit or housing units in connection with which the bonds of any issue have been issued shall be so fixed and adjusted from time to time as to provide a fund sufficient to pay (i) the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating such housing unit or housing units and (ii) the principal of and the interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable, and to create reserves for such purpose. Such fees, rents and charges shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any other commission, board, bureau or agency of the State. The fees, rents, charges and other revenues derived from the housing unit or housing units in connection with which the bonds of any issue shall have been issued (except such part thereof as may be necessary to pay the cost of maintaining, equipping, repairing and operating the same and to provide such reserves therefor as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same) shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in such resolution or such trust agreement in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to, and charged with, the payment of (1) the interest upon such bonds as such interest shall fall due, (2) the principal of such bonds as the same shall fall due, (3) the necessary charges of paying agents for paying principal and interest, and (4) the redemption price or purchase price of bonds retired by call or purchase as provided in said resolution or trust
