

his books all accounts certified by the Clerk of said Commissioners to have been examined and passed by them. He shall open a separate account against any employee disbursing money for the County and against each creditor of the County and each debtor and against each appropriation as approved in the annual levy or for other specific purposes. The said treasurer shall report and exhibit to the [said] commissioners [at each of their monthly meetings] by the tenth day of the following month a full and particular statement and account of his receipts and disbursements during the preceding month. [ , and shall exhibit his vouchers therefor, and at the same time or as often thereto as he may be required he shall make out and exhibit a full statement of the debts due to and due by said commissioners and of matters relating to his office; and he shall always have and produce his said books, and the bank book and check book, which he is required to keep by Section 88, at said monthly meetings and also at such other meetings or before such committee or committees as said commissioners shall order or direct, and shall submit himself to be examined in relation thereto all]. All books, documents and papers belonging to the treasurer's office shall be the property and records of Allegany County, and shall at all times be subject to the examination of the County Commissioners and of the Grand Jury or of any taxpayer of said county; and it shall be the duty of the Grand Jury at each jury term of the Circuit Court for said county to appoint from their own body a committee to examine the books and accounts of the said treasurer, and to report to the Circuit Court the results of such examination. All books, documents and papers, goods and chattels, accounts and credits, money and deposits belonging to the treasurer's office or in his custody as treasurer, shall be delivered up and transferred by him to his successor in office when his successor is duly elected and qualified. [ ; and such treasurer shall receive as full compensation for all services and duties required of and performed by him the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per annum, payable in installments of one hundred dollars ($100) each, upon the order of said Board of County Commissioners of Allegany County, and at the end of expiration of his term of office such treasurer shall immediately transfer and deliver to his office all books, accounts, vouchers, papers of every kind relating to the duties of or connected with his office, and pay over all moneys received for said county that may then be in his custody, charge or control belonging to said county to successor or as the County Commissioners may direct.]

88.

All money received by the treasurer, as such, during his term of office shall immediately, or as soon [after its receipt] as possible, be deposited in such banks to the credit of [such commissioners] the County Commissioners of Allegany County as the County Commissioners may direct; and no money shall be drawn from the said banks except by check, [signed by the president, countersigned by the Clerk of the County Commissioners] draft or warrant of the County Commissioners signed by the President of the County Commissioners and countersigned by the Clerk of the County Commissioners and the Treasurer in the manner and style provided for in Section 79 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Allegany County, as amended, and endorsed by the person to whom it is drawn[.] ; [except that the road directors may draw as provided by the Act creating the same] the treasurer shall make no payments in money