

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the indebtedness of any county or the City of Baltimore shall not be considered to be increased by reason of the receipt of money by said county or by said City, from participation by such political subdivision in the financial assistance granted under the provisions of this Act. No county nor the City of Baltimore shall be required to levy ad valorem taxes upon its taxable basis for the purpose of repaying to the State any money received under the provisions of this Act, or the interest or carrying charges with respect to such money, by said counties or City. All monies received by any county or the City of Baltimore by reason of the participation of such political subdivisions in the financial assistance granted by the provisions of this Act, together with interest and carrying charges, shall be deducted from funds due such counties and City under applicable provisions of State law relating to the income tax, the tax on racing, the recordation tax, the tax on amusements, the license tax and the incentive fund for school buildings; any and all obligations in connection with funds received by the counties or the City of Baltimore under the provisions of this Act, are hereby declared to be self-liquidating obligations incurred for self-liquidating projects within the meaning of those terms as used in any charter, public general or public local law now or hereafter in force in this State. All laws or parts of laws which are inconsistent with the provisions of this section are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That all matters committed by this Act to the discretion of the Board of Public Works shall be determined by a majority of said Board.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1961.

Approved April 24, 1961.
