CHAPTER 603

(House Bill 267)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 75 of Article 75 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Pleadings, Practice and Process at Law", sub-title "Process", to permit the plaintiff in any action ex delicto based upon negligence to sue in the county where the cause of action arose.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 75 of Article 75 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Pleadings, Practice and Process at Law", sub-title "Process", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

75.

No person shall be sued out of the county in which he resides until the sheriff or coroner of the county in which he resides shall have returned a non est on a summons issued in such county; provided, that nothing herein contained shall apply to any person who shall abscond from justice in the county where he lives, but such person may be sued in any county where he may be found; and provided further, that any person who resides in one county but carries on any regular business, or habitually engages in any avocation or employment in another county, may be sued in either county, whether before a justice of the peace or in a court of law or equity; this section not to apply to ejectment, dower, replevin, scire facias on judgment or decree, nor to heirs, devisees or terre-tenants, against whom process may be issued to another county.

In any action ex delicto in which all the defendants are not residents of, nor carrying on regular business in, or habitually engaged in any avocation or employment in one county, the plaintiff may, at his election, sue all said defendants in the county where the cause of action arose or sue all of the said defendants in the county where any one of the defendants reside. As used in this section the term "county" includes "Baltimore City."

In any action ex delicto based upon negligence or alleged negligence, the plaintiff at his election ELECTION may sue the defendant or defendants in the county where the cause of action arose.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1961.

Approved April 24, 1961.
