(a) In Anne Arundel County no new license shall be granted to sell alcoholic beverages in any building located within one thousand (1000) feet of the grounds of a church or school, but the license of any person now holding a license for any building located within such distance of the grounds of a church or school may be renewed or extended for the same building. This section does not apply to the City of Annapolis.

This section shall not apply to any transfer or assignment of a license located within such distance [nor shall this section apply to the issuance of a license for a place of business established for the sale of alcoholic beverages prior to June 1, 1939. Provided however, that after January 1, 1954, this section shall apply to Class LP, off sale, package goods, licenses].

(b) The words "transfer or assignment" as used in subsection (a) of this section shall mean the transfer or assignment of a license from the licensee to whom issued to a new licensee and shall not mean the transfer of a license permitting the sale of alcoholic beverages in the premises designated in the said license to other premises within the 1000 feet limitation set forth in said subsection (a).

[Provided, however, that within the first precinct of the second election district of Anne Arundel County it shall be lawful by and with the approval of the board of license commissioners for Anne Arundel County to transfer a license permitting the sale of alcoholic beverages from the premises designated in the said license to other premises within the 1000 feet limitation set forth in subsection (a) notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section, and provided further that whenever such a transfer from licensed premises to other premises is authorized that no new license shall be issued for the sale of alcoholic beverages on the premises from which the license was transferred, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this section.]

(c) [In Anne Arundel County the board of license commissioners shall not approve any license for an establishment if an application for a license to sell alcoholic beverages for said establishment has been refused within one year immediately previous.] The words "extended for the same building" as used in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to mean the extension of the area of the premises licensed and shall not be construed to mean a change in the type of OPERATIONAL classification of a license now existing, excepting when such change is from a Class B, C or D license to a Class A license.
