

tory for Males and to the Maryland State Reformatory for Women, as provided by Article 27, Sections 674 and 676 on the classes of offenders therein respectively set forth, except that the maximum period of any such indeterminate sentence shall not exceed three years.

(f) Reduction of Sentence. Each of the Judges of the Court shall have power to reduce any sentence which he may have imposed within thirty (30) days after the sentence is imposed, in any case in which an appeal has not been taken, or in which an appeal, if taken, has been dismissed before trial de novo.

(g) Suspension of license. The Judges of said Court, sitting in the Traffic Division thereof, shall have power to suspend for periods not exceeding three months, the operator's or chauffeur's licenses issued to persons upon conviction for violation of the motor vehicle laws. Such power shall be in addition to the power to sentence such person by fine and imprisonment.

114. Probation. (a) Powers. The Court shall be empowered in any case to:

(1) Suspend sentence generally or for a definite time; or

(2) Place persons charged on probation without finding a verdict; and

(3) In either case, make and revise such conditions of, and terminate or enlarge the period of, suspension of sentence and probation as the Court may deem proper. In no event shall the length of the entire period of suspension of sentence or probation exceed three years from the date of such suspension of sentence or probation.

(b) Services.

(1) Pre-sentence investigation and probation supervision services, in motor vehicle cases involving persons under the age of 21 years, shall be furnished to the Traffic Division of the Court by one of the clerical assistants of said Division assigned and designated by the Chief Judge of the Court as the probation officer and by such one or more other clerical assistants in said Division who may be assigned by said Chief Judge, whenever he deems it necessary or advisable, to assist the probation officer in his duties.

(2) Pre-sentence investigation and probation supervision services in all other cases shall be furnished the Court by the State Department of Parole and Probation.

(3) Such medical, psychological and psychiatric services as may be required by the Court shall be furnished by the Medical Department of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.

115. Cases Beyond Jurisdiction. Whenever any person shall be arrested in the City of Baltimore upon any criminal ~~charge~~ CHARGE, or for the violation of any law of this State, or of any ordinance of the Mayor or City Council of Baltimore (other than motor vehicle charges) it shall be the duty of the police officer or constable making such arrest, or in whose custody the person arrested may be, to take such person before a judge of the Criminal Division of the Municipal Court of Baltimore City, and if any offense charged against the per-
