

§ 48. Fees and costs on appeal.

Upon the trial in the Criminal Court of Baltimore of appeals entered pursuant to § 43 or § 44 of this article the same fees and costs shall be taxed as in other cases tried by the Criminal Court of Baltimore in the exercise of its original jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1960 Supplement 1957 EDITION), title "Crimes and Punishments", sub-title "Concealed Weapons", Section 36 (c), be and it is hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

§ 36 (c) Prosecutions.—All prosecutions for violations of the provisions of this section may be either upon presentment and indictment in any court having criminal jurisdiction in this State, or by trial before any justice of the peace in and for the county [or city] where the offense occurs, and jurisdiction original and concurrent with the said courts having criminal jurisdiction is hereby given to the said justices of the peace, and they shall have power to issue all processes and do all acts which may be necessary for the exercise of said jurisdiction, and may try and determine all such cases and may pronounce judgment and impose sentence therein to the same extent as the aforesaid courts having criminal jurisdiction could do in such cases, if such cases were tried before such court without a jury; provided, however, that if any person, when brought before any such justice having jurisdiction of the case, shall, before the trial for the alleged offense, pray a jury trial, or if the State's attorney for the county [or city] where the offense occurs shall, before the trial of such alleged offense, pray a jury trial on behalf of the State, it shall be the duty of such justice to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the court having criminal jurisdiction in the case, at its then or next session, and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the clerk of such court; and the justice of the peace before whom the accused is brought for trial shall inform him seasonably of his right to demand a trial by jury.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments," Section 122, be and it is hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

§ 122. Disturbance of the peace at stations or upon public conveyances.

Any person who shall be found drunk or acting in a disorderly manner to the disturbance of the public peace, or who shall wilfully act in a disorderly manner by making loud and unseemly noises or by profanely cursing, swearing or using obscene language, or by indecently exposing his person on or about any steamboat wharf, dock or public waiting room, or in or about the station grounds of any railroad in the State, or in or on any steamboat, streetcar, electric car, railroad car, passenger train or other public conveyance, or who shall wilfully catch hold of and solicit persons against the will of said persons, or obstruct their free passage to or through
