

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title, "Crimes and Punishments", Section 267, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

§ 267. Destroying, etc., tombs, trees, etc. in cemeteries.

Any person or persons, or his, her or their aiders or abettors, who shall wilfully destroy, mutilate, deface, injure or remove any tomb, monument, gravestone or other structure placed in any cemetery, or any building, wall, fence, railing or other work, for the use, protection or ornamentation of any public or private cemetery in this State, or shall wilfully destroy, cut, break, or remove any tree, plant or shrub within its limits, or who shall be guilty of indecent or disorderly conduct within said limits, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, or before any justice of the peace of this State, shall be punished by fine of not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail, or in the house of correction, for not less than thirty days nor more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of said justice or court, according to the gravity of the offense. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the removal of the remains of any human body, or of any monument, gravestone or other marker from an abandoned cemetery, provided that the prior consent in writing of the State's attorney of the county or of Baltimore City shall have been secured and provided further that such remains, monuments, gravestone or other marker is placed in an accessible place in a permanent cemetery. Any justice of the peace in this State [, except civil justices in the City of Baltimore,] shall have jurisdiction under this section.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Crimes and Punishments," Section 275, be and it is hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

§ 275. Use, sale, etc., of cans, etc., without permission.

No person or persons shall hereafter, without the consent of the owner or shipper, use, sell, dispose of, buy or traffic in any milk cans, cream can or cases belonging to any dealer or shipper of milk or cream residing in the State of Maryland or elsewhere who may ship milk or cream to any city, town or place within this State, having the name or initials of the owner, dealer or shipper stamped, marked or fastened on such cans, or wilfully change by remarking or otherwise said name or initials of any such owner, dealer or shipper so stamped, marked or fastened upon such cans; nor shall any person, without the consent of the owner, use such cans for any other purpose than for milk or cream; nor shall any person or persons, without the consent of the owner, place in any such cans any substance or product other than milk or cream. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before a justice of the peace of the [city or] county wherein the offense was committed, or in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars and cost of prosecution; one-half [of all fines imposed shall be paid to the informer, and the other half] of said fine shall be paid to the board of school commissioners of the county or City of Balti-
