

from Baltimore county, who informed me that it is impossible to build a new police station-house at Canton for the sum of $10,000, the amount that I named in an amendment to their original Bill for $20,000; hence we have agreed upon the sum of $15,000, and I accordingly withdraw the amendment and vote for the Bill, as the community is much in need of a better police station-house than the present one."

[Said Bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.]
