

of the number of the supervisors set forth shall not prevent the aforesaid County Commissioners from employing extra supervisors or laborers in work needed upon any new road which may have been or shall hereafter be opened in accordance with law by the County Commissioners of the county, to be paid for out of funds other than those set aside for the purposes of this Act. The Board of County Commissioners is hereby required to buy, purchase and supply for the several supervisors so appointed by them such equipment as in the discretion of the road engineer may be reasonably necessary for work on said county roads, and each supervisor shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all teams, tools, machinery or other property entrusted to his or their charge, and shall account for and deliver same to said road engineer whenever required by said engineer to do so.

'Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

'Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the first day of June, 1916.'" [Which was read and adopted.] [Which favorable report was adopted, which was read the second time.]
