

Public Debt—For the payment of the interest on the public debt of the State, one million and seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

‘Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the sums of money hereby appropriated are hereby declared to be in lieu of any and all annual or continuing appropriations heretofore received by any hereinbefore-mentioned person, persons, body corporate, institutions, State, county or city boards, commissions, bureaus, departments, officers, officials or employes, in accordance with the provisions of any laws, Acts, resolutions, or parts thereof, heretofore at any time passed or enacted by any General Assembly of the State of Maryland, whereby any appropriation or appropriations have been made payable, in whole or in part, out of the funds of the general treasury of the State.

‘Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, shall disburse the said sum or sums of money herein appropriated for the objects and purposes herein specified to or upon the order of the person or persons, or body politic or corporate, entitled to receive the same; provided, however, that all of the appropriations aforesaid to State Charitable and Educational Institutions shall be paid in equal quarterly installments.’”

Two-thirds of all the Senators voting in the affirmative, the rules were suspended by yeas and nays as follows:
