

ing proportions: For the expenses of the State Board of Education and its members in the discharge of their duties, the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars; for the expenses of the State Department of Education, including salaries of the Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, other professional and clerical assistants, publications, traveling and office expenses, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars; for colored industrial work as provided by law, the sum of twenty-seven thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; for approved high schools as provided by law, the sum of one hundred and forty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; for retired teachers, as provided by law, the sum of thirty-four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; for the maintenance of the Maryland State Normal School, including the expenses of a summer session of six weeks, the sum of sixty thousand dollars; for the maintenance of State Normal School No. 2, at Frostburg, the sum of ten thousand dollars; for the maintenance of State Normal School No. 3, for colored students, near Bowie, the sum of ten thousand dollars; for free text-books and the materials of instruction, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars; for printing the annual report of the operations of the public schools, on the order of the Governor, the sum of two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; for one-half of the salaries of superintendents, supervisors and attendance officers in the several counties, and the City of Baltimore, as provided by law, the sum of sixty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

After the foregoing amounts, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are paid, the remainder of the said sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, shall be distributed, according to law, to the several counties and the City of Baltimore; provided the Treasurer shall not be required to pay any of the foregoing amounts other than quarterly, except in his own discretion.

To the Maryland Agricultural College, the sum of forty thousand dollars, for maintenance of the college proper; five thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Eastern Branch at Princess Anne; twenty-five thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station; five thousand dollars for the maintenance of the Sub-Station of the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station at Ridgely; for maintenance of extension and demonstration work in agriculture and home economics, and to provide for administrative work, printing and distributing publications, boys' and