SENATE BILL No. 272, BY MR. ZIHLMAN.
SUBJECT: TRUST, SURETY AND FIDELITY.

[Endorsed: "Read the third time and passed by yeas and nays, as amended."]

Amendments proposed by the House of Delegates:

"On line 4, page 1 of the title, after the comma and before the word 'title,' insert 'and to add a new section to said Article 23 to be known as Section 382.'"

"In Section 1, page 1, line 5, after the comma and before the word 'title,' insert 'and to add a new section to said Article 23 to be known as Section 382.'"

"On page 3 before Section 2, add:

'Section 382. Any corporation, trust, surety or fidelity company, who shall print and circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any printed or written matter, soliciting the legal business of the public generally and offering to do or perform legal services free of charge, shall after first being notified by the Insurance Commissioner to discontinue such practice (and it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to send such notice to the corporation, trust, surety or fidelity company as soon as his attention is called to a violation of this Act) and a reasonable time given to comply to the demand of the Insurance Commissioner, upon the failure of any company mentioned in this Article to comply with such demand, the Insurance Commissioner shall cause the license of any said corporation, trust, fidelity or surety company to be forthwith revoked and suspended until the offending company shall comply with the demand of the Insurance Commissioner.'

On motion of Mr. Zihlman the amendments were non-concurred in and Bill, as amended, was passed by yeas and nays as follows:
