

any budget and any suggestion as to methods for the reduction or increase of the State's revenue.

“Second—Each budget shall be divided into two parts, and the first part shall be designated ‘Governmental Appropriations’ and shall embrace an itemized estimate of the appropriations: (1) for the General Assembly as certified to the Governor in the manner hereinafter provided; (2) for the Executive Department; (3) for the Judiciary Department, as provided by law, certified to the Governor by the Comptroller; (4) to pay and discharge the principal and interest of the debt of the State of Maryland in conformity with Section 34 of Article III of the Constitution, and all laws enacted in pursuance thereof; (5) for the salaries payable by the State under the Constitution and laws of the State; (6) for the establishment and maintenance throughout the State of a thorough and efficient system of public schools in conformity with Article VIII of the Constitution and with the laws of the State; (7) for such other purposes as are set forth in the Constitution of the State.

“Third—The second part shall be designated ‘General Appropriations,’ and shall include all other estimates of appropriations.

“The Governor shall deliver to the presiding officer of each House the budgets and a Bill for all the proposed appropriations of the budgets clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each House shall promptly cause said Bill to be introduced therein, and such Bill shall be known as the ‘Budget Bill.’ The Governor may, before final action thereon by the General Assembly, amend or supplement either of said budgets by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officers of both Houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said Budget Bill as an addition to the items of said Bill or as a modification of or a substitute for any item of said Bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

“The General Assembly shall not amend the Budget Bill so as to affect either the obligations of the State under Section 34 of Article III of the Constitution, or the provision made by the laws of the State for the establishment and maintenance of a system of public schools, or the payment of any salaries required to be paid by the State of Maryland by the Constitution thereof; and the General Assembly may amend the Bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the General Assembly, and by increasing the items therein relating
