

Also a petition of Samuel C. Redman, of "The Oaks," Ardwick, Maryland, for himself and others, as a taxpayer of the State, presenting arguments for and against the apportionment of the State Roads Fund between Prince George's and Anne Arundel counties, with a series of questions to be proposed to the members of the Senate as to which is the better route which can be more cheaply constructed than the other, between the capital of Maryland and the capital of the United States. [Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.]

Also a petition of C. E. Stonebraker, 2105 Callow avenue, Baltimore city, opposing the Bill providing for moving-picture censorship. [Which was read and referred to the Committee on Judicial Proceedings.]

Also a petition of J. Frank Turner, president; William Boucher, Sr., vice-president; Edwin W. Adams, corresponding secretary; Fillmore Cook, recording secretary; G. E. Purnell Truitt, treasurer; North Baltimore Business Men's Association of Baltimore city, and one hundred others, protesting against the location of the Fourth Regiment Armory at the northeast corner of Maryland and North avenues. The Association does not protest against a new armory for the Fourth Regiment, but it does emphatically protest against the location at this site and for reasons given herein. [Which was read and referred to the Committee on Finance.]

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By the President: Senate Bill No. 288, entitled "An Act to add a new and additional section to Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland, title 'Revenue and Taxes,' sub-title 'Bonus Tax on Capital Stock,' such new and additional section to follow immediately after Section 106 of said Article 81, to be known as Section 106-A, and to read as follows." [Which was read the first time and referred to the Committee on Judicial Proceedings.]

By Mr. Zihlman: Senate Bill No. 289, entitled "An Act to add one new section to Chapter 463 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the Session of 1912, concerning the retirement from regular duty of public school teachers in Allegany county, and providing salaries for teachers retired, to follow next after Section 19 of said Chapter 463 of said Acts of 1912, and to be numbered Section 19-A." [Which was read the first time and referred to Senators Zihlman, Speicher and Kaufman.]
