

lection of same, and shall at the end of each month during his term of office make a sworn report of the same to the County Commissioners of Howard county, in such form as said Commissioners may direct, and pay over same to the County Commissioners of Howard county; whenever any sheriff shall retire from office, leaving any costs, fees or charges uncollected, lawfully payable to him, his successor shall collect and pay over the same. He shall appoint a warden of the county jail, who shall be under his supervision and direction, who shall take charge of the jail and carefully and securely guard all prisoners who shall be placed in said jail, which said warden shall receive the sum of two hundred dollars annually as salary for his services as such warden. Said warden shall be allowed a sum not exceeding forty (the sum of thirty) cents per day for the keeping and boarding of each prisoner placed in said jail, and the said warden shall present his bill for the said keeping and boarding of said prisoners to the County Commissioners, with the proper vouchers therefor, quarterly, whereupon said County Commissioners shall issue their certificate to the County Treasurer for the payment thereof. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep in his office an official record to be retained there by him, and such book or books as may be required to show all fees and charges to be collected by him, and those which may have been collected; whenever, in the judgment of the sheriff, it shall be expedient and necessary for the safety and welfare of the county for him to appoint temporarily an extra number of deputy sheriffs, he is hereby authorized to appoint them, and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to allow and pay such reasonable fee or compensation as in their judgment they may deem proper for the services rendered by such deputy sheriffs, but in no case shall such deputy sheriffs continue to serve longer than the necessity of the case actually warrants.

'Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from June 1, 1916.'

On motion of Mr. Johnson, the House amendment was concurred in and Bill, as amended, was passed by yeas and nays as follows:
